Description:	Outfits/Garments can be constructed, modified, or purchased. All outfits/garments will be judged against each other.
Entries:	Individual Only
State Award:	4-H State Contests Jacket
National Award:	Determined at the National Level

General Information:

Fashion Revue is a combination of an oral presentation, modeling of the garment and response to questions from the judges . The contest will be broken into 2 parts: personal interview and fashion revue modeling.

a. Contestants will meet for a personal interview with the judges. During the interview , the contestant s will be judged on : their oral presentation skills, the content of their oral presentation, the appearance of outfit/garment , and to questions from the judges. During the interview , contestants will have the opportunity to provide an oral presentation in front of the judges. The presentation should be in the following format:

1. Name

2. One - two minutes or less presentation about their 4-H Clothing and Textiles project. This oral presentation can include information about the garment being modeled, learning experiences or activities within the clothing and textiles project, future project/personal plans , and any other information related to their 4-H career.

b. Contestants will participate in a fashion show where they will have an opportunity to model in a way to showcase their outfit/garment. Judges will score the contestants on their modeling skills. Contestants will also be asked to model their garments in a fashion show at the State Contests Banquet without judges. The Fashion/Display/Talent Show and Banquet will be Tuesday evening. Contestants will meet at 4:15pm for a full dress rehearsal on stage.
